

Lenten Book Study Sponsored by Stephen Ministry

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton reaches out to those who are in pain, suffering through illness or a loss, or experiencing any difficult transition, many times utilizing our Stephen Ministers. Do you ever find yourself in circumstances when you want to be a good listener, and at the same time share the Good News with a family member, co-worker or neighbor in need?

Spend some time this Lenten season in a book study that will give you insight into doing just that. Our five-week study of Christian Caregiving: A Way of Life by Dr. Kenneth Haugk will prepare you to be a listener with a Christian outlook. This slim volume is filled with practical applications and real-life scenarios that paint a realistic picture of giving Christian care, even within the confines of our busy lives!
